TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- 1. The in-house fee does not include the presenter's travel and accommodation, venue hire and food or beverage expenses. These expenses are to be covered by your organisation.
- 2. The base rate for an in-house course applies to up to 14 participants per course. There is no minimum, but if you wish to register 15-44 people, there will be an additional cost of $142.50 per person. For 45 people and over, please contact us for a quote.
- 3. The organisation must supply the names, addresses and emails of each participant for licensing and licensing renewal purposes (where applicable), at least 14 days before the workshop day.
- 4. Only Parentshop licensed professionals are permitted to use Parentshop training materials.
- 5. Licence agreements are signed at the beginning of the training day and will be collected by the Parentshop presenter. The licence requires trained professionals to use the Parentshop parent workbooks when training parents.
- 6. Parentshop requires a non-refundable $1000 deposit for training courses at the time of booking.
- 7. Full payment must be received within 14 days of the course.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO TO COORDINATE AN IN-HOUSE TRAINING DAY:

- Locate a suitable training room with tables and chairs to accommodate the number of participants with a wall or screen to project onto.
- Advertise the course through your email network and your local community organisations.
- Organise the catering for morning tea/ coffee, lunch and afternoon tea/coffee.
- If you want to invite colleagues from outside organisations, we will provide you with a flyer template for advertising.
- Collect the names, emails and addresses for participants you have registered.
- Email all participants' data to Parentshop at least two weeks prior to the course date.
- Liaise with Parentshop staff to ensure manuals and course materials arrive at your venue in good time.
- Ensure each participant has received a copy of the licence agreement to read prior to the course (and sign on the day).
